January 2010

Dear Prospective Campers, Parents, and Caregivers,

As ice covers the sidewalks I am warmed at the thought of the upcoming camp season! At CTRC we are already looking forward to the laughter and good cheer that fills the land during summer from our All Abilities Summer Camp. Camp is open to all members of the community, with specific camps for ages ranging from 4 to 17. It is a time when we join together for fun, learning, growth, and to share in our passion for horses and the outdoors.

Participants can chose from (4) two-week and (2) one-week day camps (see the attached schedule). While each camp is themed, we strive to meet the individual needs of our participants. Those with solid equestrian skills are challenged to learn more and to share their knowledge with others, while first-time riders gain confidence with the help of our experienced instructors and dedicated volunteers.
